

Good wellbeing should be accessible for everyone. One way to get there is through rewarding and sustainable work, a job that's right for you.

Getting the right job with the right support can provide you with structure, social networks and a sense of achievement; as well as improved health and wellbeing, confidence and self-esteem.

Social Care and Further Education Pathways is a free, voluntary service, which aims to support young people and adults with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) to improve their wellbeing and find meaningful employment. We also provide support for SEND students in colleges to transition into working life.

To be eligible for the programme, you must be:

- Over 18 years old with SEND or a social care need, or be a carer or family member of someone with these needs
- Living in Barnet, Brent, Ealing, Hammersmith & Fulham, Harrow, Hillingdon or Hounslow
- Not in work

Our team of Community Link Workers make sure you have access to the widest possible range of support and services to meet your needs and our team of Employment Advisers will support you to find the right job fit and assess what impact employment will have on your benefits and finances.

You can opt out of the service at any time, if you feel it is not right for you.
