

Supported by
The Earls Court
Development
Company

Delivered in partnership with
Lyric

Applications are now open for the COME ALIVE! Summer Training Academy: an exciting, FREE opportunity for 14-17 year olds from West London* to gain insight and experience of the producing and commercial operations of COME ALIVE! The Greatest Showman Circus Spectacular.

This week-long programme is an initiative by the Lyric Hammersmith Theatre, in partnership with COME ALIVE! The Greatest Showman Circus Spectacular and The Earls Court Development Company.

Dates: Monday 18th August to Friday 22nd August

Timings: 11am – 4pm

Location: Empress Space, Earls Court, SW6 1TT

During the week you will be introduced to the producing and commercial operations of COME ALIVE! and gain an insight into the kinds of careers available within the sector. You will take part in sessions led by industry professionals from the COME ALIVE! team, including watching the show, a backstage tour, and workshops such as producing, technical production, marketing and front of house.

If you are aged 14-17 and live in West London, you can apply online via our short application form HERE.

Deadline for applications: Thursday 31st July at midday.

We will aim to let you know by Wednesday 6th August if we are able to offer a place on the programme. Please note that this is a free, unpaid participatory opportunity.

If you have any questions or require further information on the COME ALIVE! Training Academy, please email participation@lyric.co.uk

*We define West London as the following boroughs: Brent, Ealing, Hammersmith & Fulham, Harrow, Hillingdon, Hounslow, Kensington & Chelsea, Richmond Upon Thames, Wandsworth, Westminster